Ong dared to produce 'Hello Garci' original tape

By Christine K. Esguerra, Marianne Barrios, T. Bongino, and Philip C. Salinas

IT'S THE TAPES, PEOPLE!

"They have to know that there was such an original tape, it was not a fake," former House Speaker and House Majority Leader (and former House Speaker) Manuel L. Quezon III said in an interview on Sunday. He was referring to the original tape of the "Hello Garci" scandal, which was produced by the House of Representatives.

Quezon and congressional leaders demanded that President Arroyo, who has been in the House of Representatives since 1998, to produce the original tape. They said the tape was a "Hello Garci" original tape, which was produced by the House of Representatives.

Filipino boxers in blazing start

By Ronit Hirsch

MANILA (AP)—Filipino boxers made a blazing start by winning their first medal in the 2001 Southeast Asian Games in the 51-kilogram category.

The 19-year-old Magpilitan jumped from his corner and landed several combinations on his foe before he was stopped by his loss. He was declared winner by 20-15 after a minute and four seconds of the first round with the Filipino getting up 14-6.

Magpilitan's victory, achieved by a big body count, was a first in the boxing event. It was the only victory of two Filipino fighters in the bronze division that actually resulted in boxing since the 25th Southeast Asian Games.

In the first line of the program, Alex Cito Apud (headshot) fought by Tony Tan in Vietnam, 21-5, to secure victory in what might be his last fight in the 2001 SEA Games.

Adviser sought in sale of state-run IBC, RPN

By Michael Y. Ramos

THE GOVERNMENT is searching for a financial adviser that will facilitate the sale of state-owned television stations RPN Channel 12 and IBC Channel 13 and 27.

The government has included the television stations, which have not been making profits, on the list of state assets to be privatized soon.

The government said part of the process in the privatization of the stations would be to seek a financial adviser to assist in the sale.

Officials from the Department of Finance said that the government is looking for a financial adviser to assist in the sale of the television stations. They said the government will also seek a financial adviser to assist in the sale of the television stations.

Joe A.R. Bengzon III, head of the Privatization Administration Office (PRAO), said that the government is looking for a financial adviser to assist in the sale of the television stations. He said that the government will also seek a financial adviser to assist in the sale of the television stations.

The PRAO also said that the financial adviser would also be responsible for the sale of the television stations. He said that the government will also seek a financial adviser to assist in the sale of the television stations.

But prospects remain bleak, says BSP poll

By Don C. Dantes

PHILIPINO CONSUMERS THIS fourth quarter are slowly starting to regain their confidence in the economy on hopes of improved incomes, more job opportunities abroad, and sound government policies, according to a Bangkok Sentiment Philippines survey.

Still, there are more Filipinos who are pessimistic about the economy—more with the holiday approaching. Based on the quarterly diffusion index (DI) of the BSP, the percentage share of respondents that answered in the affirmative was considerably less than those that answered in the negative.

Although the BSP's fourth quarter consumer confidence survey indicated that overall consumer confidence remained weak—the average DI was pegged at -41.7 percent—DI still marked an improvement of 1.4 index points from the previous quarter's -43.1 percent.

In the second quarter, the DI stood at -49.9 percent.

The survey that consumer confidence has bottomed out, and overall confidence is still negative in the third.

All these negative index in the report survey also showed slight improvements from
